IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT

Procedures For Opening A New Account

Mandated by the USA PATRIOT Act

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, the USA PATRIOT Act, a Federal law, requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account, including business accounts.

What this means to you:

When you open an account, we will ask you for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents. If you are opening an account on behalf of a business entity, documents relating to the business may also be requested.
